Bayonne Officer, Morro Castle Hero, Accused in Explosion

Special to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

JERSEY CITY, N. J., June 3.—

An indictment charging assault with intent to kill and causing an explosion with intent to injure was returned against Patrolman George W. Rogers, 41 years old, of the Bayonne Police Department today by the Hudson County grand jury. The indictment was presented to Common Pleas Judge Thomas F. Meany.

Rogers, who was one of the heroes of the Morro Castle disaster, having been a radio operator on the ill-fated liner, was accused of planting a bomb that exploded and injured his superior in the police radio department, Lieutenant Vincent J. Doyle. As a result of the explosion Lieutenant Doyle lost the thumb and three fingers of his left hand. Patrolman Rogers has been at liberty in $5,000 bail.
